A burning store in Minneapolis, May 26, with the American flag turned upside down – a symbol of distress

Just when we thought it couldn't get any worse in our nation, because of the coronavirus shutdowns that has so toppled our economy and our freedoms, it suddenly did get worse. Thousands of businesses across the nation that had been shut down for three months, that were finally able to open again, were now either broken into and looted of everything they had, or were burned to the ground. Why?

On May 25, in Minneapolis, a black 46-year old felon with a long police record of arrests and imprisonment for drug abuse and robbery, George Floyd, was arrested after supposedly trying to use a counterfeit bill, and was held down by a white police officer, Derik Chauvin, who also had a record of brutality, and probably should not have been working as a police officer.

The two of them actually knew each other. They used to work at the same nightclub when Chauvin was a security guard there. Maybe there was some long standing feud between them. Chauvin put his knee on Floyd's neck and held him down for 8 minutes. Why? It did not look like Floyd was resisting arrest. Someone recorded the incident and sent it out on social media. It went viral. It also showed three other police officers just standing there doing nothing to stop Chauvin." The four were arrested and hopefully will receive the justice they deserve. But because of their actions, all the police of our nation have now been labeled with a broad brush of being racist and using excessive force and brutality, and it appears they must all be punished, and anyone else who is not on the side of Black Lives Matter.

Race Riots Begin: On May 26, a protest rally started in Minneapolis with thousands participating. It soon escalated into a riot, with violence, mayhem, destruction, looting, and many fires set. A Target store was first broken into, then other stores. Police cars were set on fire. The police station was burned to the ground.¹

The next day protests and rioting in other major cities across the nation began with the same looting, vandalism and violence. Many businesses were broken into and totally cleaned out; many were set on fire; many police cars set on fire. Signs began to appear "Defund the Police," "Disband the Police."

Tearing Down Statues: Three weeks later, the protest and rioting continued on with a new element added - the defacing and tearing down of historical statues of anyone to do with the "South" such as Thomas Jefferson, because he was a slave owner. Who cares about all the good that he did for the country in writing the Declaration of Independence and as the 3rd President of the United States. A Texas ranger statue was brought down. Pretty soon, just about any statue was brought down, no matter what the history of the person, or what he represented. A Ghandi statue was defaced. He had nothing to do with the south or blacks. He was from India.

Soon Christopher Columbus was also torn down. Why? How did he get in on the list as a racist? He was the one who discovered America in 1492. Oh, but then again, he was white, so he must have been racist too, and our children are taught that he was an evil man, that he "mistreated American Indians and gave them small pox," which is not true, but there are many untruths taught as history nowadays.

Other statues were defaced and spray painted with graffiti, such as the Abraham Lincoln memorial in Washington D.C. and a statue of Lincoln in London, England. Yes, even other cities of the world, to show "solidarity" with the mistreated blacks of America, have joined in the riots. But Abraham Lincoln is the U.S. president who freed the black slaves, why deface his statue? Is it because he was an old white male too? That must be it. Whiteness is now a crime. It is called "white privilege." Even though Abraham Lincoln was born and reared in a small log cabin with a dirt floor and had to work hard for every penny, and had no privilege, but he was born white, so he is guilty as charged. Much of this mindless destruction and tearing down of any statue has to do with the loss of history those rioters have and a loss of culture. Most of the youth of today are being taught a totally rewritten history of our nation, where all of our founding fathers are labeled with a broad brush of "evil white slave holders," no matter what amazing accomplishments for freedom they achieved.

Communist Goal #22 – Destroy Statues: Cleon Skousen, in his book the Naked Communist, wrote down 45 goals of the Communists to Overthrow the United States. Number 22 is stated as: "Continue discrediting American culture by degrading all forms of artistic expression...eliminate all good sculpture from parks and buildings, substitute shapeless, awkward and meaningless forms." Goal # 23. Even goes further - "Our plan is to promote ugliness, repulsive, meaningless art." [As you will read later, there is much evidence that communists infiltrators are very much involved in these riots and have been preparing for them for years.]

Another Killing of a Black Man: Just when things were beginning to quiet down a little from the George Floyd killing, another black killing took place. Rashard Brooks, in Atlanta, Georgia on June 12, who was intoxicated and fell asleep in his car while it was in the drive-through lane at Wendy's. Other cars couldn't get passed him, were honking, but he did not wake up. Someone called the police. Two police officers tried to get him out of his car, which was very hard to do, since he was a very large man and fighting them. When he was finally out, as the officers tried to handcuff him, he stole the Taser weapon from a police officer and was shooting at him as he was running away. The officer, in self-defense, shot back and killed Brooks. That is now called the "wrongful use of deadly force." Another rally against the police took place in Atlanta the next day, followed by violence, looting. The Wendy's restaurant was burned to the ground. It was discovered that Brooks had just been released from prison because of COVID 19.

"A Cultural Revolution:" Jesse Waters on his show Water World, FOX News, Saturday, June 13, made the statement, "This movement looks like a total disconnect with our founding principles. These anarchists want to disconnect with everything that we have of our history and wipe the slate clean, and rebuild America in their own socialist image."

Victor David Hanson, a former professor of classical and military history, who is now a fellow at the Hoover Institute at Stanford, was a guest on Waters' show. He said, "We no longer have a racial or political demonstration...it is now a cultural revolution. They want to encompass every aspect of our lives, from statues, to cartoons, to movies." He was referring to the fact that Looney Tune Cartoons were now removed that showed anyone portraying a police officer with a gun, and the great classical movie "Gone With the Wind" was removed from HBO, because it depicted the South still having slaves. All of the cop movies are now removed from television.

Hanson compared what is going on with the destruction of American culture to what happened in prior radical revolutions, again with a destruction of culture and history, such as the French Revolution, the Russian Revolution, and the Chinese Revolution.

Taking a Knee and Apologizing for Whiteness: Many white fellow protestors, police officers, national guard, elected officials and even our congressmen are taking a knee, when asked to by the protesters – "to essentially apologize and ask for forgiveness for their racism and whiteness." There are pictures of people not only taking a knee but lying prostate, face down flat on the ground. Even if these people never had a racist thought or action in their life, they are still humbling themselves before the rioters, why? Because all whites are guilty as charged, just because that is how we were born – its referred to as "systemic racism." Suddenly, all the media were using the same term. "We are all guilty of systemic racism."

Who are Behind these Rallies? Are they just spontaneous? At first they appear that way. But police and reporters have said that they have noticed people standing in the back of the crowds who are giving the marching orders via ear phones or cell phones, to others who are planted in front telling the crowd what chant to say and where to go. The rallies and riots seem to be very well planned and organized. The ones in the back are dressed totally in black, with black beanies, of course wearing masks, as is everyone so no one can be recognized. These men have sophisticated military radio gear, are seen driving away in expensive-looking black SUVs with dark windows and no license plates.

The organizers bring with them hundreds of people who also arrive in vans or buses. Once they arrive, that is when the "peaceful" rally starts to get violent. The breaking in of stores begins, the looting, plundering, and fires are set. The organizers who are behind the scenes are heard speaking with foreign accents or they are speaking foreign languages. Many have said it sounds like Russian or Iranian. It is believed that these people are professional provocateurs, paid to create riots and revolutions and there are tens of thousands of them. That would also explain how all the rallies in major cities across the nation, and in other cities in Europe, all have the same tactics, the same signs and messages against the police, all going on simultaneously across the world. That takes a lot of organizing and a lot of money.

Chaziel Sunz tells who is behind BLM and Antifa

Who Started Black Lives Matter? Investigative journalist Alex Newman writes in his podcast called Liberty Sentinel about a former black activist Chazier Sunz, who revealed in a 2017 video the truth about Black Lives Matters. "It is not even a real black organization, and never was." It was started and funded by George Soros and the Clinton family. He warns his fellow blacks, "...those same people don't give a damn about you, don't give a damn about black people—they are exploiting the black plight to make money off of you."

So all the millions of dollars that are coming into BLM from wealthy donors, where is that actually going to? Tucker Carlson on his FOX news program, June 16, listed some of the big corporations and what they have donated to BLM: Niki gave $40 million; Adidis gave $20 million;

Wall Mart gave $100 million; Twitter gave $3 million; Tic Tac (a Chinese company) gave $4 million – in total there is a collection of about $230 million. According to one source, the money goes to Act Blue which funds Democrat candidates.

Sunz states that eventually, their goal is to have a “huge civil war that is being planned out right now.” “They are basically trying to get you to fight for a war that is being started on American turf, very, very soon.” “And they want us to be a part of their side.” He added that all these things were “about to hit the fan.” [Remember that was in 2017. They have had three years to do all their planning. No wonder these riots look so well organized.]

And What about Antifa that seem to show up at every rally and helps turn it into a riot. Antifa is supposed to have come from the word “Anti-fascist.” In other words, they are supposed to be against fascism or Nazism, but really they are supporting the same tactics of revolution and tyranny. According to Chaziel Sunz, they are a “terrorist group,” just as Trump would like them to be designated. He states on the video that they were started and are funded by the Rothschild family and other power elites and supported by the Democrat party. For the most part, they are a “rent-a-Mob” group and are also paid by George Soros. It is believed that money is also coming from Iran to pay for the $15-25 hourly wages for Antifa, using part of the billions originally given to Iran by Obama. Many of the Antifa are the group that has now occupied six city blocks in Seattle, seizing the police station there. It is Soros who keeps them fed with plenty of drugs and alcohol.²

What are the Ultimate Goals: The Deep State behind these riots have the same goals as the socialist/communist provocateurs who helped lead the masses to revolutions in the French Revolution, the Bolshevik Revolution, the Nazi Revolution, and the Chinese Revolution. Four of those goals are:

1) To Nationalize the Police: One of their first goals is to get rid of local police and local sheriffs who are there to protect local people. Once they were gone, then a national police force came in, such as: The Geheime Staatspolizei (Secret State Police) – abbreviated Gestapo of Hitler’s NAZI Germany; the KGB of the former Soviet Union; the STAZI secret police of the former East Germany (when it was under the control of the Soviet Union); and the Chinese People’s Armed Police (PAP) of Communist China. The main purpose of a national police force is to protect the government against the people, totally opposite of the police protecting the people. That is when all the freedoms of the people began to disappear, including the right to own a gun and defend themselves. All the people in these countries were first disarmed, then the real tyranny began. Hitler did not take the Jews and other undesirables off to the concentration camps until he had first disarmed everyone. A national police force in the USA would probably have no problem coming on your property and taking away people’s guns, while a local sheriff and local police would not be willing to do that. They are here to protect the rights of their fellow citizens. They live among us.

Rioters cheering as the 3rd Precinct Police Station burns in Minneapolis, May 26th

2) Radicalize Black Americans, Latinos and White Youth and Turn them Against their Country: This actually is a very old goal of the Deep State in the war against America and freedom. The Communists of the Soviet Union launched a program in the early 1920s to radicalize black Americans, turn them against their own nation, and use them as “cannon fodder” in a war to destroy the United States. Many gullible Latinos, and white youth are part of that cannon fodder as well, as this picture shows. Notice the raised fist of those cheering watching the police station burning. A raised fist is the Communist sign of power and victory.

Alex Newman writes, “In 1922, FBI and Soviet archives reveal, the Soviet regime approved a $300,000 program for promoting racial agitation and propaganda targeting black Americans.” In 1930, The Communist Internationale (Comintern) passed a resolution calling for the establishment of a “Negro Republic” ruled from Moscow in America’s Southern states. Newman quotes Professor of Political Science, Paul Kengor of Grove City College, who states: “Yes, that is correct: the Soviet Comintern, working through American communists, actually crafted plans to create a ‘separate Negro state,’ or a segregated ‘Negro Republic,’ in the South. This rebellion would aim to ‘lay siege to the United States’ with help from communists.”

3) Exploit Black Americans to Wage War Against their White Compatriots. Manning Johnson, a whistle blower, who had defected from the black Communist Party USA in 1936, blew the whistle on their schemes. He revealed that the communist leadership (who were extremely racist against blacks) were seeking to portray themselves in a better light as being pro-black. They republished in America Opinion as “Color, Communism, and Common Sense.” Manning’s revelations helped expose the operation. But communists never give up.

4) Exterminate Millions of Americans: FBI operative Larry Grathwohl, who infiltrated the Weather Underground, the Communist terrorist group of the 1960s, revealed that it was literally plotting to exterminate millions of Americans with help from foreign powers, including Communist China.³ It is interesting to find out that Barack Obama later launched his political career in the Chicago home of Weather Underground founder and leader Bill Ayers, who, incidentally, never had to serve time for his many bombings and crimes, but ended up as a college professor and served as a mentor to Obama.

Black on Black Killings? What if a black police officer had been found guilty of killing George Floyd or of Rashard Brooks? We probably would not have heard anything about these deaths. Such things happen all the time. But it was bad at the end of May. According to data maintained by the Chicago Sun-Times, in a city with an international reputation for crime — where 900 murders per year were common in the early 1990s — “it was the most violent weekend in Chicago’s modern history, stretching police resources that were already thin because of protests and looting.

“We’ve never seen anything like it at all,” said Max Kapustin, the senior research director at the crime lab. “I don’t even know how to put it into context. It’s beyond anything that we’ve ever seen before.” The next highest murder total for a single day was on Aug. 4, 1991, when 13 people were killed in Chicago, according to the crime lab.

Chicago Mayor Lori Lightfoot said that on May 31 alone, Chicago’s 911 emergency center received 65,000 calls for all types of service — 50,000 more than on a usual day.⁴ And why has this not made national news? Why are mobs and riots not descending on Chicago in mass numbers — 25 blacks were killed in 3 days! Is it because they were all killed by fellow blacks? Is this the true racism? Blacks don’t like their own people?

“Two Wrongs Don’t Make a Right” – “You can’t fight injustice with more injustice.” So, maybe it was unjust and uncalled for how George Floyd was killed by a white police officer in Minneapolis, and Rashard Brooks in Atlanta.

To solve any wrong or injustice, does it help to seek revenge against all police officers, to belittle them, to spit on them, to have riots against them, to burn their cars, to burn their police station, to take over the police station and six city blocks in downtown Seattle? And then to expect the police to readily respond to their next call for action?

Support Your Local Police Before they are no Longer There to Support You: We heard Sunday, June 14, that the demands by the race riots have been successful in some areas. In New York City six-hundred of the “plain clothes police” have just been let go. They were the ones having the most success fighting crime, finding where it was really going on behind the scenes. Minneapolis is also considering meeting the mobs’ demands for defunding and disbanding their police. Maybe other police in other cities will now be defunded and let go as well.

Arewa Karen Winters – Co-Chair of Chicago Use of Force Working Group:

Citizen Review Boards of Police: This has also been one of the goals of the Communist party and anti-police movement for many years, as another way of discrediting, humiliating and getting rid of local police. This latest rash of racism riots has brought more of these being established in cities all over the nation. They just have a new name.

Chicago mayor Lori Lightfoot has set up a “Use of Force Working Group,” designed to review the Chicago Police Department’s policies pertaining to use of force. Lightfoot has appointed Arewa Karen Winters, to be in charge, who is obviously an “unbiased, neutral” choice. Her great-nephew Pierre Loury was killed by the police in 2016.

The head of the police union, Fraternal Order of Police, President John Catanzara, is very opposed to Winters as the co-chair over the working group. He believes she is biased against the police and is asking for her resignation. In the acceptance speech that she gave announcing her appointment, she blamed the police for “breaking the city of Chicago” and refers to the police officers as “psychopaths with gun.” Catanzara says that with Winters in charge, this review board will be “little more than a kangaroo court.”⁵

What Can Americans Do? Now that we know the truth of who is really behind Black Lives Matter and what their goals are, let us do our utmost to not let those goals be achieved. Support our local police and sheriff and keep them local. We do not want a national police force. Let them know you appreciate and support them especially in this time when they are being so slandered and put down. Write letters to the editor to express your appreciation to the police. Do what the Santa Rosa Republican Women are doing. They are having a day to honor the police and the sheriff by bringing every police station in the area, dozens of homemade cookies, with notes of appreciation. Let your city council know that you don’t want the police’ hands to be tied or their effectiveness with a review board examining their every action.

Spread this message far and wide. Let people know what and who are really behind Black Lives Matter and these race riots, so that we can stop any more efforts towards a nationalized police force and their other goals including a civil war in this nation., for time is running out!
